

PENG AWARD 2017

An exciting opportunity for 3 PENG members* to get a supportive educational grant to attend the PENG 'emerging or innovative practices in nutritional support' pre-BAPEN teaching day on 20th November and the 2 day BAPEN conference 21st-22nd November 2017.

In addition the three award winners will be invited to present their nutrition support abstract in the afternoon of the PENG teaching day.

Supportive educational grant

Abbott Nutrition, Fresenius Kabi and Nutricia Advanced Medical Nutrition have very kindly offered for another year to jointly provide three educational awards. Each educational grant is for the value of £500 to cover registration for the PENG pre-BAPEN teaching day and the two day BAPEN conference, accommodation and travel.

How to apply

Send a copy of an abstract on nutrition support to education.peng@bda.uk.com by Friday 25TH August 2017

Abstracts will be judged by PENG and results announced Friday 1st September 2017, to allow 'early bird' registration with BAPEN by 5th September 2017.

*Not a PENG member? not a problem go to the PENG website www.peng.org.uk and join today.

Please note that winners will be responsible for booking their own travel, accommodation and registration.
