

WIN A FREE PLACE ON THE 2018 CLINICAL UPDATE COURSE

(Funding will include the course costs and accommodation but not travel)

The PENG Clinical Update Course in Enteral & Parenteral Nutrition has been run annually for dietitians since 1985. In 1990 it was the first course to be validated by the British Dietetic Association. In 2010 it was accredited at masters level by Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh.

Closing date is Friday 8 September 2017.

Applications should be made by completing the application form at www.peng.org.uk

To be eligible to apply you have to be a member of PENG during 2017-18, have relevant clinical experience at the time of application (see the PENG website), not have attended the course in the last two years and have approval from your manager that you will be granted leave to attend.
The winners will be decided on merit of 500 words supporting statement titled 'In 500 words or less describe what you hope to achieve by attending this course. Successful applicants will be notified by Monday 18 September and to guarantee your place on the course you must confirm attendance by Friday 22 September 2017. Conditions for application apply see www.peng.org.uk